The month of February is dedicated to the Holy Family.

The special devotion which proposes the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph as the model of virtue of all Christian households began in the 17th century. It started almost simultaneously in Canada and France: the Association of the Holy Family was founded in Montreal in 1663, and by the Daughters of the Holy Family in Paris in 1674. This devotion soon spread and in 1893 Leo XIII expressed his approval of a feast under this title and himself composed part of the Office. On account of the flight into Egypt this feast has been observed by the Copts from early times. The feast was welcomed by succeeding Pontiffs as an efficacious means for bringing home to the Christian people the example of the Holy Family at Nazareth, and by the restoration of the true spirit of family life, stemming, in some measure, the evils of present-day society. In the words of His Holiness Pope Leo XIII, "Nothing truly can be more salutary or efficacious for Christian families to meditate upon than the example of this Holy Family, which embraces the perfection and completeness of all domestic virtues."

Imitation of the Holy Family

The Holy Family models for us what family life should exemplify. It is a school of virtue for both parents and children. There we find God, and learn how to connect with God and with others. The family is where love is freely given without self-interest. It is where we learn to love, to pray and to practice the gift of charity. Pope John Paul II has said, "The family, more than any other human reality, is the place in which the person is loved for himself and in which he learns to live the sincere gift of self" (Nov. 27, 2002).

We should ask ourselves if our own families model that of the Holy Family. We need to be open to God's grace to value the positive and to accept our mistakes — and to be willing to rectify them. Parenting is a very challenging responsibility and at times errors are made despite the best intentions. Recognizing this, children should trust their parents and never forget that parents want only what is best for them.

Which leads us to what may be the most important family virtue — forgiveness. Living so intimately within the family nucleus naturally gives rise to unpleasant situations where someone is apt to be offended. St. Paul knew this when he told us to "bear with and forgive one another." The health of our family may depend on how quickly we learn to forgive without harboring feelings of resentment.

No family can thrive and grow without constant work. Even the material details that take time and effort are essential to keeping the family strong. Everyone has to pull together for the good of the family — even to the point of putting ahead of our own needs and ambitions the happiness of other family members, setting aside our own selfish desires.

It is also important to pray as a family, especially the holy rosary. Prayer will help us to intensify our closeness with each other and to learn to forgive.

During this Year of the Eucharist it is essential to discover the relationship between the Eucharist and family life. Pope John Paul II wrote, "In the eucharistic gift of charity the Christian family finds the foundation and soul of its communion and its mission" (Letter on the Family, No. 57). — Excerpted from The Holy Family models what family life should be, Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

Imitación de la Sagrada Familia

La Sagrada Familia nos modela lo que la vida familiar debería ejemplificar. Es una escuela de virtud tanto para padres como para hijos. Allí encontramos a Dios y aprendemos a conectar-nos con Dios y con los demás. La familia es donde el amor se da gratuitamente y sin interés propio. Es donde aprendemos a amar, a orar y a practicar el don de la caridad. El Papa Juan Pablo II ha dicho: "La familia, más que cualquier otra realidad humana, es el lugar en el que la persona es amada por sí misma y en el que aprende a vivir el don sincero de sí" (27 de noviembre de 2002).

Deberíamos preguntarnos si nuestras propias familias modelan la de la Sagrada Familia. Necesitamos estar abiertos a la gracia de Dios para valorar lo positivo y aceptar nuestros errores, y estar dispuestos a rectificarlos. La crianza de los hijos es una responsabilidad muy desafiante y, a veces, se cometen errores a pesar de las mejores intenciones. Al reconocer esto, los niños deben confiar en sus padres y nunca olvidar que los padres sólo quieren lo mejor para ellos.

Lo que nos lleva a la que puede ser la virtud familiar más importante: el perdón. Vivir tan íntimamente dentro del núcleo familiar naturalmente da lugar a situaciones desagradables en las que alguien puede sentirse ofendido. San Pablo lo sabía cuando nos dijo que "soportáramos y perdonáramos unos a otros". La salud de nuestra familia puede depender de qué tan rápido aprendamos a perdonar sin albergar sentimientos de resentimiento.

Ninguna familia puede prosperar y crecer sin un trabajo constante. Incluso los detalles materiales que requieren tiempo y esfuerzo son esenciales para mantener fuerte a la familia. Todos tenemos que trabajar juntos por el bien de la familia, incluso hasta el punto de anteponer a nuestras propias necesidades y ambiciones la felicidad de otros miembros de la familia, dejando de lado nuestros propios deseos egoístas. También es importante rezar en familia, especialmente el santo rosario. La oración nos ayudará a intensificar nuestra cercanía unos con otros y a aprender a perdonar.

Durante este Año de la Eucaristía es fundamental descubrir la relación entre la Eucaristía y la vida familiar. El Papa Juan Pablo II escribió: "En el don eucarístico de la caridad la familia cristiana encuentra el fundamento y el alma de su comunión y de su misión" (Carta sobre la Familia, n. 57). — Extraído de La Sagrada Familia modela lo que debería ser la vida familiar, Arzobispo Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Gorra.

The Hidden Life of the Holy Family

The home of Nazareth is the school where we begin to understand the life of Jesus—the school of the Gospel. First, then, a lesson of silence. May esteem for silence, that admirable and indispensable condition of mind, revive in us...A lesson on family life. May Nazareth teach us what family life is, its communion of love, its austere and simple beauty, and its sacred and inviolable character...A lesson of work. Nazareth, home of the Carpenter's Son, in you I would choose to understand and proclaim the severe and redeeming law of human work. — Paul VI at Nazareth, January 5, 1964

Since the Holy Family observed the Jewish law in its perfection, we can deduce quite accurately what prayers they recited. The Psalms, of course, were the favorites. Three times a day Jesus, Mary, and Joseph said the Tephillah, "The Prayer," consisting of eighteen long invocations and blessings. Joseph (and later Jesus when He attained to manhood) was obliged to say the Shema, a sort of profession of faith in the one true God, twice daily.

A very interesting Jewish custom of prayer that must have been observed in the house at Nazareth was that of the Mezuzah, "the doorpost," and the "phylacteries," small square calfskin boxes with Scripture texts written on parchment inside them.

On the doorpost of the house at Nazareth was fastened a wooden tube containing a rolled parchment inscribed with the passage quoted above from the Book of Deuteronomy and another passage (11:13-21) citing the blessings of serving God. On entering and leaving the house the members of the Holy Family would piously touch this Mezuzah, saying, "May God keep my going out and coming in from now on and forevermore." All this was intended to show reverence for the word of God.

Such was the vocal and the more or less formal prayer which Jesus, Mary, and Joseph offered in their home at Nazareth. In their hearts, however, they prayed always. Just as the Heart of Jesus was constantly united with His divinity, so were the hearts of Mary and Joseph so closely bound to God that their every action was a prayer. — Excerpted from Reflections on the Life of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, Francis L. Filas, S.J.

Prayer of the Month

Consecration of the Family to the Holy Family

Lord Jesus Christ, Who, being made subject to Mary and Joseph, hallowed domestic life by Your ineffable virtues; grant that we, with the assistance of both, may be taught by the example of Your holy Family and may attain to its everlasting fellowship; Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen — Roman Missal

MATTHEW 25 PILL BOTTLE MINISTRY

In developing countries, medicines—when actually obtainable—are often dispensed into hands, pockets, leaves or any other available container. Matthew 25 Ministries accepts donations of empty pill bottles to help improve health care quality in developing nations. Donations of clean, unlabeled pill bottles help the poorest of the poor in many ways: Medicine can be distributed in sterile containers. Pill bottles that are not appropriate for shipping are recycled for cash that goes towards Matthew 25:Ministries' programs.

This plastic recycling program keeps thousands of bottles out of landfills each year.

Matthew 25: Ministries accepts the following types of empty pill bottles: Prescription pill bottles, all sizes Pill bottles with and without child resistant caps Over-the-counter pill bottles. Bring your bottles to any Parish and they will be delivered to Risen Lord.

Prayer for a Happy Death

Grant unto us, Lord Jesus, ever to follow the example of Thy holy Family, that in the hour of our death Thy glorious Virgin Mother together with blessed Joseph may come to meet us and we may be worthily received by Thee into everlasting dwellings: Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen — Roman Missal
