Father Herman's Easter Message -THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE EASTER EGG.

It was Mary Magdalene, who told the 11 Apostles that Jesus had risen.

Tradition has it that Mary Magdalene, boldly presented herself to the Emperor Tiberius Caesar to proclaim the resurrection of Jesus Christ, with an egg to illustrate her message.

Holding the egg out to him, she exclaimed for the first time what is now the universal Easter proclamation among Christians, "Christ is risen!"

The emperor could not believe in the resurrection of Jesus. Immediately, the egg turned red as a sign from God, to illustrate the truth of her message.

The Emperor then heeded her complaints about Pilate condemning an innocent man to death, and had Pilate removed from Jerusalem under imperial displeasure. The eggs are often dyed red to represent the blood of Jesus Christ that was shed on the cross.

The eggs were also traditionally dyed red because the egg is shaped like a tear drop and Jesus wept in the Garden and his tears turned to drops of blood.

In another tradition, it is said that Mary Magdalene brought a basket of white boiled eggs with her on Easter morning to the tomb of Jesus as a meal for herself and the others as they waited for someone to roll the stone away. When she arrived at the site of the Resurrection, finding the stone already rolled away, she also found that the eggs in her basket had turned into bright shades of color.

Perhaps this is why she brought an egg to the Emperor.

The tradition of handing out red eggs at Easter is one that originated among Christians in Apostolic times. And we often find Mary Magdalene depicted in icons holding a red egg. Moreover, the story fits into the various cultural traditions already surrounding the symbol of the egg.

For many cultures, even before the time of Christianity, the egg was a symbol of creation, spring, and rebirth. After the resurrection of Christ, the egg took on a new meaning for Christians and became a symbol of new life breaking forth while leaving the empty tomb behind.

Eggs were what helped people to understand a new theological truth of the resurrection of the dead, and a new religion of Christianity that is built around the Resurrection of Jesus. Christians symbolically link the cracking open of Easter eggs with the empty tomb of Jesus.

We should always tell the people the Christian meaning of the Easter egg. Most people know that it is a symbol of the Resurrection of Christ just as the chick breaks the shell when it is hatched and begins its life, so Christ comes forth living from the apparently lifeless tomb. Children learn not only from words of instruction but also from what they see and experience.

As a symbol of Christ's resurrection, the Easter egg then became a symbol for the rebirth of all mankind at the resurrection on the Last Day due to the merits of Jesus Christ. Easter eggs were shared with one another as a joyful symbol of Christian hope.

Thus the connection of eggs with Easter and the Resurrection is a historic one in the heart of the Church, and as is always the case with ancient Christian customs, an excellent way to catechize the faithful and celebrate a shared Christian culture with family and friends. HAPPY EASTER SEASON TO YOU ALL.

Mensaje de Pascua del Padre Herman

EL SIGNIFICADO DEL HUEVO DE PASCUA.

Fue María Magdalena, quien les dijo a los 11 Apóstoles que Jesús había resucitado.

Cuenta la tradición que María Magdalena, con valentía, se presentó al emperador Tiberio César para proclamar la resurrección de Jesucristo, con un huevo para ilustrar su mensaje.

Ofreciéndole el huevo, exclamó por primera vez lo que ahora es el anuncio universal de Pascua entre los cristianos: "¡Cristo ha resucitado!"

El emperador no podía creer en la resurrección de Jesús. Inmediatamente, el huevo se puso rojo como señal de Dios, para ilustrar la verdad de su mensaje.

Luego, el Emperador hizo caso a sus quejas de que Pilato había condenado a muerte a un hombre inocente e hizo que Pilato fuera expulsado de Jerusalén ante el descontento imperial. Los huevos suelen teñirse de rojo para representar la sangre de Jesucristo que fue derramada en la cruz.

Los huevos también se teñían tradicionalmente de rojo porque el huevo tiene forma de lágrima y Jesús lloró en el Huerto y sus lágrimas se convirtieron en gotas de sangre.

En otra tradición, se dice que María Magdalena trajo una canasta de huevos blancos cocidos la mañana de Pascua a la tumba de Jesús como comida para ella y los demás mientras esperaban que alguien quitara la piedra. Cuando llegó al lugar de la Resurrección y encontró que la piedra ya había sido quitada, también descubrió que los huevos en su canasta se habían vuelto de colores brillantes.

Quizás por eso le llevó un huevo al Emperador.

La tradición de repartir huevos rojos en Pascua se originó entre los cristianos en la época apostólica. Y a menudo encontramos a María Magdalena representada en iconos sosteniendo un huevo rojo. Además, la historia encaja en las diversas tradiciones culturales que ya rodean el símbolo del huevo.

Para muchas culturas, incluso antes de la época del cristianismo, el huevo era un símbolo de creación, primavera y renacimiento. Después de la resurrección de Cristo, el huevo adquirió un nuevo significado para los cristianos y se convirtió en un símbolo de la nueva vida que brotaba al dejar atrás la tumba vacía.

Los huevos fueron lo que ayudó a la gente a comprender una nueva verdad teológica de la resurrección de los muertos y una nueva religión del cristianismo construida en torno a la resurrección de Jesús. Los cristianos vinculan simbólicamente la apertura de los huevos de Pascua con la tumba vacía de Jesús.

Siempre debemos decirle a la gente el significado cristiano del huevo de Pascua. La mayoría de la gente sabe que es un símbolo de la Resurrección de Cristo así como el polluelo rompe el cascarón al nacer y comienza su vida, así Cristo sale vivo de la tumba aparentemente sin vida. Los niños aprenden no sólo de las palabras de instrucción sino también de lo que ven y experimentan.

Como símbolo de la resurrección de Cristo, el huevo de Pascua se convirtió en un símbolo del renacimiento de toda la humanidad en la resurrección del último día debido a los méritos de Jesucristo. Los huevos de Pascua se compartieron entre sí como símbolo alegre de la esperanza cristiana.

Por lo tanto, la conexión de los huevos con la Pascua y la Resurrección es histórica en el corazón de la Iglesia y, como siempre es el caso con las antiguas costumbres cristianas, una excelente manera de catequizar a los fieles y celebrar una cultura cristiana compartida con familiares y amigos. FELIZ TEMPORADA DE PASCUA PARA TODOS USTEDES.

 AGES!

We want to cordially invite all families and youth to our fantastic youth group hosted by All Saints Catholic Church in Floyd on the first Monday of every month! Our events start at 6:30 and end at 8:30. We understand this can be a haul for some, but every child and parent alike who make the drive look forward to it every month. We focus on Catechesis through fun! We have Catholic Jeopardy, Evangelization, Apologetics and many more in lessons. Which of course are all integrated into fun activities to keep our oldest kid (20) to our youngest (5) engaged and learning!
